

SAP Program & Release Manager

Function type: Freelance - Vast Location: Zaventem
Duration: Longterm Reference: 202008034

Description:

Finding the right candidate for every project is our priority. That's why we pay a lot of attention to 'the person behind the consultant'

Who you are and what you expect from a new adventure within IT is our job to find out.

We have a new challenge within the vast world of SAP.

At the moment we're looking for a program and release manager SAP.

Your day to day responsibilities will include the following :

- Manage the corporate wide SAP S/4 HANA IT program
- Planning and staffing of resources (IT and external consultants) and operational coordination of IT and technical personnel within the program in coordination with implementation partner
- Status reporting to program management and IT Top Management in coordination with implementation partner
- Scope-, claim-, and change management within the program for all IT deliveries
- Application of IT process & architecture knowledge in the integration, standardization and harmonization process
- Active involvement and integration of business experts and key users in the design process of the new landscape
- Develop and maintain stakeholder relationship
- Lead each phase to ensure milestones are achieved
- Project documentation and Training

Requirements:

What have you studied and learned during your previous or current career? :

- Master level in IT or computerscience, an economics degree or your years of experience is valid
- You've had at least 10 years of experience within the same level/kind of field
- You're Dutch, French and English are at a high level

- Solution orientated and
- To you the customer comes first
- Good communication skills
- Conflict management
- Maintaining relationships and creating new ones
- Organisatiesensitief handelen
- You are a dedicated person and goes the extra mile when needed
- You're a well organized person who likes structure

Start: 2020-05-24 22:00:00